Giving Thanks

Dear Editor,

I am writing to you because, for the third time in a row, I attended Thanksgiving meal at the First Congregational Church on Beach 94 Street and Cross Bay Boulevard in Rockaway Beach. I was overwhelmed by the love and kindness shown by all.

The Congressional Church greets you and also remembers you by name.

Letters

They serve you, pamper you, feed you, treat you with respect. They also supply you with additional groceries for future needs. They give you as many meals as you request to take home for your family members.

They are also concerned about your pet needs. I was given two pounds of dog food to take home to my "Angel." In addition, they drive you back to your residence and even stick around to meet and greet your pet.

I wish to give them all my blessings and tell them Thank you!!! From the bottom of my heart, I am forever grateful.

A Vision For Rockaway

Dear Editor,

Is it far fetched to believe that someday we can have a ferry that stops at Beach 108 or Beach 116 Street, then to the Coast Guard station up in Roxbury?

Before heading off for a nice summer's morning ride to work, and what would be an even more fantastic ride home, of course it would have to run on a decent middle to low income working class schedule. I believe someone with half a brain can figure one out. I see the National Grid area by the bay that they just excavated would be perfect as a park and ride, an area that size. I would
