

Hungerpedia.com

An encyclopedia of anti-poverty agencies in the U.S. and Canada

Fill their Horns of Plenty

The Hungerpedia web destination is a North American compilation of anti-poverty/hunger agencies and a project of Rock and Wrap it Up!. It is presented by geography, asset needs and contact information. Hungerpedia is a destination which will enable potential donors to find suitable agencies to recover their assets, thus keeping them out of land-fill. Different anti-poverty agencies need food, toilet paper, tissue boxes, shampoos and toiletries, small appliances, kitchen items, dorm room assets and funding.

Agencies that are listed are vetted by Rock and Wrap It Up! and must have health certification, transportation, refrigeration, cell phones, storage and either have or support on-going anti-poverty/hunger programs. Donors are protected from liability by the Bill Emerson Good Samaritan Act. (Pub. L. No 104-210, 110 Stat. 3011(1996). The U.S. passed the Federal Food Donation Act of 2008 to encourage federal agencies to donate excess for to the poor. (Pub. L. 110-247 122 Stat. 2314(2008)

Rock and Wrap It Up! is an international think tank working towards poverty reduction. By giving anti-poverty agencies assets which would normally be purchased, the funds which are saved are used to reduce the root causes of poverty. More tutors, social workers, job placement, mental health professionals will be able to be hire. Rock and Wrap It Up! works in advocacy, music, sports, hotels, schools and the entertainment industry.

Please donate your assets to the poor and keep them out of landfill.
